Greetings:

I am happy to report that Tony Jannus was inducted into our Paul Garber First Flight Shrine at Wright Brothers National Memorial during the 103rd First Flight Anniversary Ceremonies on December 17, 2006. The Shrine was established in 1966 and Tony Jannus joins more than 75 pioneers whose accomplishments have advanced aviation over the past 103 years.

We were pleased and honored to include Tony Jannus as an inductee into our Shrine and invite the public and your membership to visit the Birthplace of Aviation and view his portrait which is on display in the Wright Brothers National Memorial Visitor Center.

Sincerely Yours,
